DAILY ACTION CHALLENGE #3

WORKSHEET

It's time to "Create Your Complimentary Consultation Idea" in today's Daily Action Challenge!

Create Your Complimentary Consultation Idea!

A quick refresher..

A strong strategy for converting your website visitors into potential clients is by offering what is called a “Complimentary Consultation”.

This is a 15-30 minute free virtual Zoom call where you have the opportunity to talk 1:1 with a potential client and provide them with a brief, but valuable assessment based on the services you offer.

For example, if you’re a website designer, during your Complimentary Consultation you could provide your potential client a brief breakdown of areas of improvement for their current website.

Or if you’re a social media manager, you could provide Instagram tips to a potential client on how they can use their Instagram to drive higher engagement and website traffic based on their current Instagram efforts.

Or if you’re a Virtual Assistant, you could provide a potential client with a list of technical automations that could free up time and automate parts of their business!

In a nutshell, your Complimentary Consultation should be a juicy “sneak peak” to a potential client of the value of working with you and the potential of the impact of your services!

Let’s get into it!

Today's Challenge:

Using the space below, brainstorm ideas for what type of a valuable assessment you can provide on your complimentary consultation calls.

My complimentary consultation idea is...

Use the space below to write out which idea from your brainstorm above that is going to be the offer you'll use for your complimentary consultation.
